Attorney Docket No. P71323US0

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

In re application of Hazuki NAGAI et al.

Application No. 10/581,366

Filed: June 2, 2006

For: METHOD FOR MANUFACTURING OPTICALLY ACTIVE
TETRAHYDROTHIOPHENE DERIVATIVE AND METHOD FOR CRYSTALLIZATION
OF OPTICALLY ACTIVE TETRAHYDROTHIOPHENE-3-OL

REQUEST TO WITHDRAWAL INCORRECT NOTICE REGARDING CHANGE OF POWER OF ATTORNEY

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

Applicants undersigned attorneys of record received the PTO notice mailed February 8, 2007

(copy attached) which mistakenly maintains:

The Power of Attorney to you in this application has been revoked by the assignee who has intervened as provided by 37 CFR 3.71.

The notice is incorrect because no assignee of the instant application has revoked any Power of Attorney to the undersigned attorneys of record. As explained below, the papers on which the PTO relied (in revoking the Power of Attorney and issuing the notice) are directed to a different patent application and were inadvertently filed in the present application.

Attached, hereto, are copies of the inventorship declaration, assignment, General Power of Attorney (by the assignee named in the assignment) and the Transmittal letter accompanying the General Power of Attorney filed (mistakenly) in the subject application. The mistake is readily apparent since:

- both the inventorship declaration and assignment named "Armin STELLWAGEN" as the sole inventor; whereas, the subject application names "Hazuki Nagai, Kaname Konuki, Shoji Ito, and Tomohiro Sameshima" as co-inventors.
- the inventorship declaration identifies the application number (under ¶371) "PCT/DE2004/002705 filed December 8, 2004"; whereas, the subject application is a ¶371 of PCT/JP2004/017837 filed December 1, 2004, as indicated in the application filing papers.
- both the inventorship declaration and assignment identify "Hydraulic Controller Arrangement" as the title of invention; whereas, the title of the instant application, as filed, is "Method for Manufacturing Optically Active Tetrahydrothiophene Derivative and Method for Crystallization of Optically Active Tetrahydrothiophene-3-OL."
- the assignment identifies "June 13, 2006" as the date the application papers were filed in the PTO; whereas, the instant application papers were filed (under §371) in the PTO on "June 2, 2006."

Applicants' undersigned attorneys understand that the attorneys who inadvertently filed the papers in the subject application have since filed a petition in the PTO to correct the inadvertent error. The undersigned believe that the petition explains why and how the papers were mistakenly filed in the subject application. The application in which the papers should have been filed has a serial number—10/581,336—differing by only a single digit from the subject application serial number— 10/581,366.

In view of the foregoing, it is requested that the PTO issue a new notice that withdraws the notice mailed February 8, 2007 and, further, confirms the undersigned as attorneys of record in the subject application.

The notification of missing requirements, mailed February 12, 2007, was mistakenly addressed to, and received by, the attorneys who mistakenly filed the aforesaid papers. In that the revocation of power of attorney and the corresponding notice (mailed February 8, 2007) were mistaken, as explained/shown above, withdrawal of the notification and mailing of a new notification of missing requirements, which resets the time period for a response, addressed and sent to the undersigned attorneys is in order.

Favorable action is requested.

Respectfully submitted,

JACOBSON HOLMAN PLLC
